Dear Colleague,

The League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC) and Pima Community College are very proud to announce that we will be hosting our Twenty-First Annual Youth Leadership Conference themed “Education is the Key to Success: Today’s Youth Defining Tomorrow”. The conference targets students, 6th through 12th grade, and encourages them to stay in school, to set their goals and to realize that the key to success is through education. In addition, the conference is an effort to expose middle and high school students to life on a college campus. The Conference and Public Safety Fair will be held at Pima Community College West Campus, 2202 W. Anklam Road on Monday, March 15, 2010 and Tuesday March 16, 2010 from 8:00 A.M. to 12:00 P.M.

Activities for this year’s conference include a Keynote Speaker, Career Fair, Public Safety Fair, Technologies Fair and Interactive Workshops that focus on community issues and careers. Representatives who have excelled in their chosen fields of study or career will facilitate these presentations that will stress to students the importance of graduating from high school and how higher education, can only lead to success.

The commitment requires all volunteers to attend a mandatory on-site orientation and walk through on March 14, 2009 at 4:00pm at Pima Community College – West Campus Gym. Your participation at the conference will begin at 7:30 a.m. and end at 2:00 p.m. on Monday & Tuesday, March 15th & 16th.

If you would like to volunteer please complete the Volunteer Contact Form and submit to the LULAC Office at the above address or fax. For those volunteers under the age of 18, parent/guardian signature will be required in order to allow you to volunteer. Should you have any questions, please call (520) 245-8124 or email lulacyoungadults@gmail.com
